

Student Page

Kay was waiting by the door for the mail to come. Her father had promised to write her a letter. He told Kay the letter would have a blue stamp on it.

Kay saw the woman walking toward the house. She was carrying a big bag on her side. She reached into her bag and gave Kay some letters. One of the letters had Kay's name on it. When Kay read the letter she was very happy. She was so happy when she read it that she began to jump up and down. In the letter her Father told Kay he was going to buy her a pony.

Reading Comprehension 2 Assessment

1. Have the student read the following story to you. Then take away the story so they can't refer to it later.

Kay was waiting by the door for the mail to come. Her father had promised to write her a letter. He told Kay the letter would have a blue stamp on it.

Kay saw the woman walking toward the house. She was carrying a big bag on her side. She reached into her bag and gave Kay some letters. One of the letters had Kay's name on it. When Kay read the letter she was very happy. She was so happy when she read it that she began to jump up and down. In the letter her Father told Kay he was going to buy her a pony.

Mark dashes in the appropriate boxes for all the times they miss, add or mispronounce a word while they are reading the story to you.

--	--	--

Missed words

Added words

Mispronounced words

How was their reading pace? _____

What was their tone? _____

2. Ask the following comprehension questions.

/10

- ___ Why was Kay waiting by the door? (For the mail to come or for a letter)
- ___ Who had promised to write her a letter? (Her father)
- ___ What had her father told her the letter would have on it? (A blue stamp)
- ___ Who did Kay see walking toward her house? (A woman or mail carrier or similar title)
- ___ What was the woman carrying on her side? (A big bag)
- ___ What did the woman do? (She reached into her bag and gave Kay some letters, or she gave Kay some letters)
- ___ How did Kay know that one of the letters was for her? (Because it had her name on it, or because it had a blue stamp on it)
- ___ How did Kay feel when she opened the letter? (Happy)
- ___ What did she do because she was so happy? (She began to jump up and down)
- ___ What did her Father tell Kay in the letter? (That he was going to buy her a pony)

